Poway Unified School District Leads the Way in ACSA Administrators of the Year Awardees

Region 18 of the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) released the names of their 2019 honorees and PUSD received five awards – the most of any San Diego County school district.

Congratulations to:

- Greg Magno, Principal, Mt. Carmel High School: Secondary Principal of the Year
- Colin Young, Poway High School: Secondary Co-Administrator of the Year
- Kimberlie Rens, Curriculum & Instruction Administrator of the Year
- Tim Purvis, Classified Leader of the Year
- Northrop Grumman: Partners In Education Excellence Award

Superintendent Marian Kim Phelps was thrilled to surprise the winners with the news that they had won, “The caliber of administrators and partners in PUSD is truly something to celebrate. They are passionate, dedicated, and have a deep love and commitment for their work. I am so privileged to work alongside these fantastic individuals for the benefit of our students.”

The awardees will be recognized at the Poway Unified School District’s annual Recognition Dinner on February 28th as well as at the annual San Diego County School Boards Association (SDCSBA) and ACSA Region 18, “Honoring Our Own” Awards Dinner, to be held May 11, 2019 at the Sheraton San Diego Resort and Marina. Honorees also have the chance to go on to be recognized at the State and National levels.

Nearly 1,400 educational leaders belong to ACSA Region 18, which encompasses San Diego and Imperial Counties. The mission of ACSA is to support California’s educational leaders; to ensure all children have the essential skills and knowledge needed to excel; and to champion public education.
