Poway Unified's New Associate Superintendent of Personnel Support Services to Start August 28th

James Jimenez, Associate Superintendent of Personnel Support Services

Tonight, at its August 10th meeting, the Board of Education approved the Associate Superintendent contract for James Jimenez. Mr. Jimenez's first day as Associate Superintendent of Personnel Support Services will be August 28th. "I am truly honored by the opportunity to join the Poway Unified School District and to work collaboratively with all employees and our community to serve the best interests of our children. I look forward to supporting the District's successful and innovative programs with the Personnel Support Services team," said Jimenez.

Mr. Jimenez comes to Poway Unified after serving as the Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources at the Westminster School District for nearly four years. Prior to that, he served at San Diego Unified School District as a Human Resources Officer for the District and Principal of Robert E. Lee Elementary and Vice Principal of Zamorano Fine Arts Academy and Correia Middle School. Mr. Jimenez started his education career as an elementary school teacher in SDUSD in 1997.

"Poway Unified is committed to providing high quality customer service to our families and our employees. James is a leader that embodies high integrity, strong communications skills, and experienced leadership. He has a proven track record of fostering positive relationships to build strong teams. He possesses a very calm demeanor that brings a sense of trust and collaboration among all stakeholders," said Dr. Marian Kim-Phelps, PUSD's Superintendent.

Jimenez earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing, and later earned his Master of Arts degree in Educational Leadership at San Diego State University.
